Kindly use the following guidelines when making a donation:

- All donation items should be new or in good condition.
- It is up to the discretion of the Pasta Committee to auction certain antiques, collectibles and artwork. To help us, please provide your estimate of the item's value and whenever possible, the item's artist, maker and history/historical significance. The auctioning of any homemade crafts and decorative items will also be considered, as event space permits. We are unable to accept homemade food items, or baked items made in a home kitchen.

Thank you so much for your donation. We hope to see you and your friends & family on April 24th!
